150 Antique Chinese Rugs of Varying Age, $50 Each

This is an exceptional collection, and the price is unprecedentedly low. They were made for individuals - not for the market - and were used by the wealthier classes in the interior, mainly as sleeping rugs. Some of them still have on the binding which enclosed the filling used in the back of the rugs.

The old wools were hardy wools, very tightly woven, with a medium nap, dyed with vegetable dyes in colors that have mellowed with the years. There is service and romance in these old Chinese rugs, averaging about 2x4 feet in size. 150 only: Tuesday moraing, $50 each.

100 Small Oriental Rugs Hearth Size, $25 Each

We shall not, knowingly, sell any of these rugs to dealers for re-sale at prevailing prices for rugs of the quality of these. They are Shirvans, Beloochistans, Daghestans and Mossouis, Persian all-over and large designs bright, deep and neutral tones.
